“ My heart goes out to Jeff and his family for their loss. Kathy is an inspiration and I am honored to have known her. Everyone that knew her can say that they are better people for the impact her life has had and the strength with which she showed thru the years of her illness. Her legacy is her faith in God and everyone that she touched can draw on that strength to get them thru this difficult time. She will be missed greatly I am sure.##imported-begin##Jim and Ann Reeves##imported-end##

“ Dear Poet/Hitchcock/Yost family's;May you all be at peace knowing Kathy is now in God's care in Heaven. Though we did not know Kathy too well, she was very kind and loving when we were with her at family events. Our son Jeremy; who is married to Jamie(Yost)Carrier, truly respected and loved "Aunt Kathy". He has always spoken so highly of her loving and giving ways. God is with you through this time of sadness. Know that Kathy is looking down at you all with her beautiful smile! Our prayers and thoughts are with you all.##imported-begin##Bob and Pat Carrier##imported-end##

“ It has been an honor working with Kathleen and our relationship at Jay's Sporting Goods for the last 10 years - hard to believe! I remember talking to Kevin Johnson about building the super store and now here we are 10 years later, mourning the founder of such a special place. We are sure Kathleen is in a special place of her own in Heaven where there are spectacular gardens, wildlife and peace galore!Rosemary SmithEagle Radio Group##imported-begin##Rosemary & Kent Smith##imported-end##

“ I will be praying for your family, Matt. While I didn't know Kathy personally, she scheduled advertising for Jay's through Grigg Media on WMKD-105.5 in Sault Ste. Marie, and I'm the sales rep it comes to. May God grant your entire family His peace that passes all understanding during this time in your lives. It sounds like Kathy knew the Lord and for this I give thanks. How wonderful that you are following in her footsteps as the Marketing Director at Jay's. May that also give you comfort in the days ahead. “ Jeff - I only met Kathy casually on my visit to your store a few years ago. In that brief moment I could see the devotion and respect you had for each other and the life you shared. A strong supportive and understanding spouse is essential for someone to enjoy as much success as you have in the archery and bowhunting industry and Kathy surely filled the bill. During our short conversations over the years your dedication to your family was not only evident but something I have often used as I urge our staff to make their families a focal point of their busy lives. I'm sure Kathy shared your devotion to family and I'm sure she'll be missed by all. “ I met Kathy first thru business relationships and then became friends thru similar interests and hobbies. I truly admired her for her joy for life, her family, and spiritual connection to God. Whenever I came to see her it would be 10 minutes talking about work and the rest of the time was spent catching up about the kids and grandkids. When she was given the news about her disease, which was grave, she possessed an incredible strength and dignity that will forever be embedded in my heart and soul. She was to me a very special unforgettable woman. I will really miss her.##imported-begin##Michelle Oates-Hisey##imported-end##

“ To the Hitchcock and Yost families, My deepest sympathies to Kathy's families and those who cared for her. How lucky was I to have met Kathy and to know her for oh too short of a time. A true lady through and through. She was indeed a "fighter" and oh so courageous to endure her very long battle with cancer, but always said she was fine when asked. Her body and soul is now with the Lord, she is at peace. Heartfelt Sympathies, Camille Kutis-Coller##imported-begin##Camille Kutis-Coller##imported-end##
