“ No matter what adversity Kay faced with her condition and being Tom's rock during his illness she smiled every time I talked with her or heard her talk with others. That smile will be missed by many.

“ 22 years ago I met Kay when she was a courier for universal labs. Instantly the kind of "mother figure" you could talk to about anything! Always understanding and full of great advice. I learned so much from Kay...what a great mother is...what a perennial is...how good Diet Coke can be for your soul...monster cookies and the best sugar cookies ever ..how to landscape and decorate with great taste..on and on ..she would've layed down her life for her children and the last few days all that brought a smile to her face was talk of her grandson Thomas. Although it was too soon for me to say goodbye, I know she lived with great love in her heart and I hope she is at her very best holding Toms hand both of them smiling knowing they did good!! I will miss her every day but smile on all the memories I have. My heart is broken.
