“ I have no words. Just numb. I spoke with Kelly Friday about the kids coming to the Christmas Party. They were so excited to see their Dad and telling them Sunday morning he was gone was the hardest thing for me to do. I can't stop their hurt and it's killing me. I am so thankful that we were able to stay friends even though we were no longer together I will always love you Kelly, the father of my children and no matter what you were always there when we needed you. Rest in Peace. I will keep your memory alive for the kids as well as myself and I will make sure that they continue to have a relationship with the girls. All my love Kelly.
