“ I will miss my grammy with all of my heart. I'm so glad I had all of those special days with her. I will never forget our sleepovers and staying up until midnight talking and reminiscing about her childhood memories. I will never forget the good times my mom and I had in her apartment in Clare or the good days we had in her apartment in Midland. I'm so sad that I won't be able to see her any more but I know she will still be with me...looking down from heaven and keeping us safe. I'm happy for her that she is finally with grandpa..I know how much she was missing him. I will treasure every minute I had with her and I feel so fortunate to have had her as long as I did.

Rest in peace now my precious Grammy and don't forget to send me butterflies. Love forever Kim
