“ I have such warm memories of my sweet friend, Loretta. Other than her devotion to God, her family was her world. She was a dear friend to me for a lot of years. You will be so missed, dear Loretta.

“ Seeing Aunt Loretta was always our highlight of any family get together ! Michelle and I loved visiting with her and always enjoyed lots of memories from way back . She was so sweet but yet very tough cause all the battles with her health . She was an inspiration to all with her Faith and Love for God . She will be Greatly Missed but Happy for her reuniting with Uncle Ken ! Michelle had asked multiple times in the 6 days before her passing wondering how she was doing . Little did we know we should have taken the time to visit her ! Well She is in A far better place with Uncle Ken and She will always have that place in our heart but one Day we'll be visiting her with open arms in that heavenly place called Home for the Believers ! Love you Aunt Loretta !!

“ Loretta was always smiling anytime I was around her. I always felt that she was such a sweet, strong and incredible person, especially being outnumbered by all the men in her family! She fought long and hard with multiple illnesses through the years. I didn't get to see her often after leaving home, but my mom would always keep me up to date on what was going on with her. You'll always be loved, rest in peace Loretta.
