“ Our Heart is heavy. The "what ifs" swirl in our head. Words seem meaningless, for she can not hear them. One day the tears will all be wiped away, that one day seems so very far away.##imported-begin##NULL##imported-end##

“ Ron and family, I am truly saddened by Lorrie's sudden passing. She was a great person and I am very glad to have known her and worked with her when the boys were smaller and in scouts. That was the foundation for many years of friendship. I am praying for your family during this difficult time. Whatever I can do to help, please let me know. Bailey has my number. “ To Lorrie's family, I was very sorry to hear of Lorrie's passing. Although I have not seen her in quite a few years, there are many memories or years past. She was my babysitter when I was growing up, I will never forget the many hours of drawing with her and the many wonderful drawings that she made me then. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with all of you as you head into these days that follow. Just remember that she is in a peaceful place now.
