“ I used to work with Peggy over the phone in the school business. She was always cheerful and helpful. The smartest woman I ever met. Helped me so many times. Just a few weeks ago, she sent me some pics of her art show in Eastern Arkansas. I was so glad she was happily retired. She will be missed!

“ Though I've only known Peggy for a short time through Art Center of North Arkansas (ACNA), I am grateful for it. Peggy was so passionate about her talent through painting. She always had a smile on her face and was cheerful.

I send my deepest condolences to the family and all friends affected by her sudden death. But with great faith we know she is still with us cheering us on to be happy and kind to each other.

“ It's so hard to imagine that Peggy's gone. I'm the watercolor artist who teaches classes on Zoom and I looked forward to her being the first one in the room each time -we would laugh and share until the others showed up. Peggy was usually also the first one to sign up for each class too- sometimes within minutes of my post for a new painting coming up. She loved life and loved painting and would paint so quickly that she'd be done before class was even over many times and then probably create two more paintings on the same day for good measure. I can imagine her in heaven now painting the brilliant flowers all around her. She will be greatly missed.

“ I have been painting in a zoom/ Facebook water color class and watching Peggy blossom as an artist, so fun. Such a prolific painter. A beautiful loose impressionistic realism. Master of colors and capturing the movement and emotions of her subjects. Peggy's my inspiration for how to live my dream. We never know what time we will have to paint. She has left a huge body of art for her family. I was getting to know her as a Great loving and kind person to all creatures living and a contagious joy for life that bubbled into all she did. She will be missed.

“ Peggy was represented by the same 3 galleries in our area so I'd see her frequently and we'd chat. Always outgoing and friendly and fiercely proud of her grandchildren. I'd meet them as they helped her at the Arts Festivals. Peggy was always positive and a prolific artist. Always creating. I will miss her

Doug, Jill, Alex, Lily, Cece and Bryn, know that I have been thinking of you since having learned of the passing of your dear mother, mother-in-law and paternal grandmother. Prayers have gone up for you and the entire Bellah/Duff family. So very sorry, of course, for your loss; but, offer encouragement, as well, as this current separation is only temporary and you shall be reunited with your loved one again, as you know. Meanwhile, I know you will cherish the many memories you have and hold onto the hope which is yours in and through Jesus Christ. Speaking blessings upon you and sending love. ~Carol Brown
