“ I met Margaret several times since her daughter is my daughter-in-law. She definitely was a very giving person and I was touched by stories Angi related to me regarding her years of growing up. Whatever Margaret had, much or little, she shared with those that were in need. That takes a very special person. I'm sure she is now resting in a very special place.##imported-begin##Dorothy Gallihugh##imported-end##

“ One time Margaret and I, and about a dozen or so kids...were walking back from town and she was lamenting about Carl, saying "He say's he's gonna go to church, but he never does", I said to her "Well, at least he has good intentions" to which she replied "And the road to hell-o is paved with good intentions" We both had a good laugh on that one. I'm not sure if he ever did go with her, I lost contact with her after that, only seeing her on occasion. Rest in peace, Dear Lady. Sorry for your loss Angie and Neil. God Bless. lj##imported-begin##Laurie Anderson##imported-end##

“ Margaret was a great aunt and person. She watched over everyone. The day before the funeral the family and I was reminiscing about all the fun times we had with Margaret and her sense of humor. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her. Shes finally resting. I hope when she gets there she can say "Hi" to Uncle Carl and my dad, Sam.##imported-begin##Teri Anglin##imported-end##

“ Pauline and family, I am so sorry for your lose. She was a fantastic person. I will never forget the first time, I saw her and a lot of children walking down the street and my dad said that women is one of the best I have ever meant. He admired her love of children and how she gave the love so freely. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time.Vivian##imported-begin##Vivian Fiedler##imported-end##
