“ She was a wonderful person! Marie helped raise many children in her life and have given us all great memories. When I would drop off my kids at 6:30 in the morning you could smell the great aroma of bread baking or one of her famous pies before we even walked in the door, and of course, according to my girls I could never make mac and cheese as good as Marie's. She has made such a great impact on my girls, Sara, Heather and Corissa Benchley, that they still talk about all the good times at her house. Thank you Marie for being such a wonderful day care Mom to many of our children and for all the memories we still hold. You will truly be missed.

“ What an amazing women.....she's help raise so many of our children and I've often commented on how she has helped with my girls. She was the best babysitter in this whole world. I knew when I dropped my girls off in the morning that they were not only getting the best care in the world, but also the best food one could ever hope for. I remember dropping them off early in the morning and she would be ironing her sheets, have pies in the oven and soup on the stove, and the best macaroni and cheese ever is what Tiffany Weakman & Jessica Boelkins would? say. I can go on forever about the wonders of this amazing women, but I'm sure many of you have been touched by her in your life. Marie we love you so very much and you will be missed by so many. Thanks for the memories and all the love you have passed onto our children. Our loss is definately heavens gain.
