“ Marilyn (or Mrs. Pitchford, as I referred to) was an amazing and caring person. I have very fond memories of having her as a 4th grader. All of her students knew, if they needed a hug, she would always be willing to give you one. She was a wonderful lady. I am honored to have had a relationship with her both as my teacher and friend.##imported-begin##Hannah Winn##imported-end##

“ Marilyn was an immediate friend when first we met at Independence Village in Midland. She was looking for someone willing to go to an aquacize class at the community center in Midland, and I agreed. We spent many Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings in the pool, after which we enjoyed breakfast and conversation with multiple cups of coffee. We then formed the Village book group with 8 other "readers," meeting monthly for lively book discussions. Marilyn was a warm, joyful, lively, lovng person who gave me a friendship I will always cherish.##imported-begin##June Turley##imported-end##

“ Marilyn (Mrs. Pitchford) was the children's choir director at the Gilmore Church during the late 50's. She fixed us all up in little white capes with blue ribbon ties. I remember that she taught us "alto" and had us sing many times. It was the sing-a-long choir and Joanne and Eric were in it too. A very kind and gentle lady-I am very appreciative of the time she put into our generation. She is fondly remembered by me.##imported-begin##Christine (Wood) Cages##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Pitchford was an amazing woman who will be greatly missed. She directly affected my life in the fourth grade and her impact and teaching has followed me all of my life. Without her guidance, kind heart, and way of finding the best in people I would not be the person I am today. Thank you, Mrs. Pitchford. I only wish I could have had the opportunity to tell you personally what an impact and inspiration you have been on my life. “ We met Marilyn on our visit from the UK to meet our American family whose grandfather had emigrated from England in the eighteen hundreds. Together with Don she made us feel so welcome and nothing was too much trouble. Although we arrived as comparative strangers we left feeling so much a part of their family that her loss will leave a gap in our lives.##imported-begin##Derek & Jean Hutchinson##imported-end##

“ It saddened me so much to hear of Mrs. Pitchford's passing. She was my first grade teacher in 1981 and even after 30 years years I remember her as being my favorite. I used to live next door to her grandchildren Lisa and Ken as well, and remember have some wonderful adventures with them. Mrs. Pitchford's loss will be felt by all her former students. She was patient, kind and always encouraged us to do and give our best. She helped my develop my passion for reading, often letting me share stories with the class. She also made sure that each of us knew our phone numbers, addresses, parents' full names, where they worked, and an emergency contact. I think in this she was years ahead of her time! It was obvious she loved teaching and all of her students. Even years later when in high school, and after having moved away for several years, she immediately knew who I was and that I used to play with her grandchildren. Each visit was never complete without a hug and a wish for good luck. Years later, my nephew even had her has his teacher. She even gave him the same boom I had used! I didn't believe him until he showed me the front cover where my name was there in penciled chicken scratch. Indeed. I will truly, truly miss Mrs. Pitchford. And so will hundreds of her former students. She was loved.##imported-begin##Tina Weaver Gyokeres##imported-end##

“ so sorry about your Mom's passing. Unfortunately I didn't know your Mom all that well. Remember meeting her and your Dad a few times when I was a kid, but not as an adult. I am 12 years younger than your Mom. (So I'm getting up there too.) May you find peace and love in all your memories.##imported-begin##sally prins##imported-end##
