

Marjorie Jean Case

February 10, 1927 - November 5, 2016

Marjorie Jean Case, age 89 of Clare, passed away on Saturday, November 5, 2016 at the Sensations Memory Care Facility in Charlotte, MI. On February 10, 1927, Marjorie was born the daughter of William W. and Irene (Somers) Hileman on a family farm in Clare County, MI. After graduating high school at age sixteen, she attended Central Michigan University then took a full-time elementary teaching position for Harrison Public Schools at age eighteen. She was united in marriage to William Case on August 2, 1946.

While raising their three daughters, Marjie returned to educating fulltime and later went on to receive a Master's and Reading Specialist Degree from CMU. She and Bill summered at Glen Lake for over 50 years and upon retirement wintered in Florida but always thought of Clare as home. Marjorie loved playing golf, reading, teaching piano, playing the organ for the Clare United Methodist Church, and cooking. She had a passion for collecting cookbooks, and it was rare for her to miss a good cookbook on sale at the store.

Marjorie is survived by her husband William and three daughters Patty (Dick) Greene, of Charlotte, Penny (Paul) Wisinski, of Madison, WI, and Nancy (Tom) Walder, of Grand Rapids. She is also survived by her brother Richard (Esther) Hileman, of Houghton Lake, her sister Claire Shaver of Holt, her nine grandchildren, her nineteen great-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews. Marjorie was predeceased by her parents William and Irene Hileman, her brothers William S. and Herbert R. Hileman, and one great-grandson.
