“ I have many many many memories of Mary. I can't remember eating her fried tortilla shells and she would put them in between paper bags to get all the oil off. And it doesn't seem like whenever I spent the night or just over there as she had all of her bras hanging on the shower rod. She was really something. I loved her very much.

The day after my graduation, Mary walked in the house and brought the paper and said look who made the paper and there was a picture of me and some class mates~ She was so excited to show me ~ Later in life she was my children's bus driver and was amazing and I always knew they were in good hands. She was always welcoming and I will forever remember her laugh and her smile~ She truly was a treasurer for many throughout the years. I hope your life in heaven is full of laughter and hugs Mary ~

“ Mary was one of the best mentors I knew as far as having patience with her kids. She had so much love and compassion to share; and always handled situations with humor. We shared kids from her previous route and good, old, dependable bus #10. She once insisted on washing a sweatshirt I dropped on the ground while we were discussing a trip she asked me to take at the last minute for her and gave me hers to wear. We shared many mornings, after our routes, having coffee at the Lone Pine. I loved her stories, especially the one about the night George found the group of drivers at M's. 🤔. I regret I wasn't a better neighbor and friend to visit, but I know her kids took great pride in caring for and about her. Rest peacefully my friend 🙏
