

Mary E. Howerton

January 27, 1940 - February 9, 2013

Mary E. Howerton, age 73 of Farwell, passed away suddenly on Saturday, February 9, 2013 at home. Mary was born the daughter of Arthur and Erie (Toler) Hutchinson on January 27, 1940 in West Virginia. She was united in marriage to Jesse Howerton on July 9, 1960 with him predeceasing her on February 19, 1996. Mary had moved to Farwell from Lansing in 1981. She had worked as a Bookbinder and was a member of the Clare Eagles Auxiliary. Mary loved being on the lake; she enjoyed fishing, watching the birds and wildlife and tending to her flowers.

Mary is survived by her children Donna (John) Hawkins of Okemos and Gary (Mary) Howerton of Lansing; a brother Onnie Hutchinson of West Virginia, 13 grandchildren, 2 great grandchildren with one on the way; her loving companion Jack Crispell of Farwell and her niece Gail Hedrick of Clearfork, West Virginia. Mary was predeceased by her brothers Henry, Ed, Ray and Bill and her sister Martha Hutchinson.

Services and visitation will both be held on Tuesday, February 12, 2013 at the Farwell Chapel of Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Home. Visitation will be held from 12 Noon until the time of services at 2:00 P.M. Services will be led by Pastor Jim Young. Burial will take place in the Gilmore Twp. Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made in memory of Mary Howerton c/o Isabella Bank, Farwell Branch. Please consider leaving Mary's family an on-line condolence at www.stephenson-wyman.com

“ My heart aches that so much time has gone by and we never got around to having that phone chat. Every year, sending Christmas cards with each others phone numbers. I have much regret I never made more effort to get to know Aunt Sis. To be able to hear the stories of her growing up in the Hutchinson family with my father Ed and her other brothers and sisters. I pray her passing was peaceful and her life was full. Patti (Hutchinson) Emmons
