“ Aunt Pat was always taking care of kids and not just her own either! Nieces, nephews, neighbor kids and friends of friends! I remember when I would be visiting, she ALWAYS made homemade yeast dinner rolls and would ask me what kind of veggie I would like. I always asked for her creamed peas and carrots. NEVER had any since that tasted even close to hers. She will be missed by many, many, MANY family and friends. Such a strong woman and an inspiration to many. I love you Aunt Pat and know that you are now reunited in Heaven playing cards and "catching" up with everyone. Give Mom a hug for me, okay? ❤️

“ Mom came to see me sing at a Pickin in Pentwater jam last summer. When she realized I was on stage, she smiled and said .” That’s my daughter in law”! and jumped up to join me on stage. Lots of family had joined us that day and we had a great time 😊 She will be missed.

♥️ that’s the grandma that I remember - even though I haven’t seen her in many years, I Know from many wonderful memories exactly how she would have made her way to join you on stage.

Grandma Pat was so thrilled when Florence and Lonnie were dancing on a hay wagon on the farm in Beaverton.
