

Patricia S. Coe

September 7, 1947 - August 1, 2017

Patricia Sue Coe passed away of a heart attack on August 1, 2017, at the age of 69. In a final act of service to others, she became an organ donor.

Pat was born September 7, 1947, the daughter of Phillip Harrison (Virginia Roland) and Eleanor Boorsma. She grew up under the loving guidance of her grandparents, Winifred and Clarence, who cared for Pat and her brothers, Michael and Jeffery. Pat graduated from Everett High School in 1965. She was a small business owner and worked in the Lansing area as a bookkeeper for several businesses and organizations including Advent House Ministries. Pat's passion for gardening and quilting provided hours of satisfaction, and the keepsakes she created will serve as a reminder of her love for family, friends, and community.

Pat is survived by her husband and best friend, James L. Coe, her children Kimberly Jo Kruger, Phillip David Kruger (Kathleen), James Patrick Coe (Elizabeth), and Amanda Jean Brown (James), and her brother Jeffery Arthur Harrison, along with her two granddaughters Lauren and Grace Kruger, and many nieces and nephews who will miss her presence at our family gatherings. She will also be missed by her stepbrothers Walter "Chip" Morgan and Dennis Morgan, her stepsister Diane Misterka, their families, and her sister-in-law Patricia Hughes.

A celebration of life will be held for family and friends Monday, August 7, 2017, at First Presbyterian Church, Lansing, on W. Ottawa St. Visitors are welcome starting at 10am and the service will begin at 11am, with a luncheon immediately following. Memorials in Patricia's honor to the First Presbyterian Church Food Pantry, 510 W Ottawa St, Lansing, MI 48933 are welcome.
