

Paula L. Myers

March 28, 1958 - December 3, 2025

Our cherished Paula Lee Myers, 67, born on March 28th, 1958, in Detroit, Michigan, resident of Clare, Michigan, died on the morning of December 3rd, 2025, at home. She was the youngest daughter of Dr. Coleman and Jean Rottenberg (z'l), a beloved wife, a devoted mother, a supportive sister, a loving aunt, and a skilled Occupational Therapist, even becoming a teacher and mentor in her field. She was known by those who loved her for her humor, her astonishing memory, her professional skills, and her warm demeanor. Paula is mourned by her husband Curtis Myers, and her two children Eric and Zachary Myers; her three sisters Helene Rottenberg (Rory Bolger), Lori Corrsin (Stephen Corrsin), and Diane Kaiser (John Kaiser); her nieces and nephews Leslie Carmona (Michael Carmona), Alexandra Corrsin, Peter Jablonski, Jeffrey Kaiser (Kimberley Smith) and Mitchell Kaiser; her grand-nieces Addicus and Juna Kaiser; as well as many other relatives, friends, students, and former patients. She was smart, knowledgeable, and caring in both her personal and professional lives. Her husband, children, and extended family adored and relied on her, and she extended that care back to all of them equally. Paula will be intensely missed by everyone whose life she touched, and she will forever live in all of our hearts.

“ Paula was a kind and helpful person. She had a wonderful spirit which had the capacity to light up people around her. She never hesitated to share her knowledge of the hand with others. The Mid-Michigan Classical Guitar Society members benefited greatly from a comprehensive lecture she presented on the use of the hands in regard to playing classical guitar. Paula was an extraordinary human being who will be missed by many.
