

Peggy G. Gwin

March 14, 1940 - October 20, 2016

Peggy G. Gwin, age 76 of Farwell, passed away Thursday, October 20, 2016 at the MidMichigan Medical Center in Clare. Peggy was born the daughter of the late John and Cora (Baker) Gilbert on March 14, 1940 in Huntsville, Alabama. She was united in marriage to Andrew Jackson Gwin on April 18, 1959 at the Welcome Baptist Church in Detroit. Peggy had worked most of her life as a Secretary; she had worked for the Temple Baptist Church in Redford, the Redford Union Schools Board of Education and the American Red Cross. Her and Jack had moved to Farwell from Redford Twp. in October of 1999. Peggy was an active member of the First Baptist Church of Clare. In her younger years she played the Piano and Organ for her church as well as for Quartets. Peggy was remembered as an awesome baker who loved preparing meals for her family. She also enjoyed gardening and her flower beds.

Peggy is survived by her husband, Jack; and children Debbie (Don) BeVier of Garden City, Mark (Maurica) of Spring, Texas and Jeff (Michele) of Caledonia. Peggy was blessed with 13 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren. She was predeceased by her brother James.

“ My dear aunt and teacher, including music and piano: she was a big part of church, organist, pianist, secretary. I loved her Christmas dinners, she always made sure everyone enjoyed our time together, making special dishes... she was a great cook. I remember her smile, joy and love she gave to all. I will miss her dearly. Prayers and hugs to my Uncle Jack, and cousins Debbie, Mark and Jeff.
