“ Phyllis befriended me when I first started working for the City of Clare and Dick became my friend soon after that. My little girl (who is now 21) still remembers her "Grandpa and Grandma" who floated sticks down the river. We've lost touch over the years but you have both always remained in my heart. Phyllis was a dear, wonderful lady who will be greatly missed. Love to all. Cathy ##imported-begin##Cathy Davis##imported-end##

“ Dick and family. Our family is sad to hear of Phyllis's passing. We all remember her very fondly. My earliest memories are her attempting to keep Wendy and I busy while Dick was finishing off the house (Cottage St ??; was I even 4 or 5??) ... of course, we probably wanted to help. Through the years, I have memories of Dick and her at all our family events. I know Mom has treasured her friendship through the years and will miss her as one of her closest friends. All our love and prayers to all of you. Marcy (for the entire Marge Wyman (and Bernie) family.##imported-begin##Marcy (Wyman) De Laere##imported-end##
