“ Dear Family, I was sorry to hear about Ray (fondly know as Grandpa at the store). We sure will miss him! He always had a smile on his face, even when he wasn't feeling well. He will always be one of my favorite customers, along with his wife Eileen (fondly know to us as Grandma). He would tease me about being the Chicken Killer. Smile!! I know he is smiling from Heaven now. May the Lord be with you always!! I will keep you in my prayers!

“ My father and Raymond's father were brothers. Although Raymond and I never met or spoke we were connected by family and I wish to express my sympathy to Mrs. Burtle and Raymond's children and grandchildren.##imported-begin##James Burtle##imported-end##

“ I worked at an Italian restaurant that Ray and Eileen frequented. The only thing is they insisted we call them Grandpa and Grandma. We always enjoyed their visits and Ray telling us jokes about how he had to keep grandma in line and then she would add that it was her keeping grandpa in line. The respect and admiration we have for Grandma and Grandpa is tremendous. What can you say about 70 years of marriage! I know that I can speak for myself and my former fellow workers at Fazoli's that we will miss Ray very much, but both he and Eileen will come up in our conversations with the fondest of memories. I thank the lord for the opportunity to have got to know such wonderful people.Dan Manley##imported-begin##Danny Manley##imported-end##
