

Raymond W. Louch

March 6, 1950 - September 27, 2014

Raymond W. Louch, age 64, of Clare, passed away on Saturday, September 27, at his home surrounded by his family. Ray was born the son of Percy and Beverley (Lucy) Louch on March 6, 1950, in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan. He was a plumber and pipefitter with Local 85 of Saginaw. Ray is married to the former Suemya Zion who survives him. He was an avid fisherman and enjoyed hunting also, and had been a private pilot. He enjoyed spending time with his children and grandchildren, especially watching their sporting events.

Ray is survived by his wife Suemya, his parents, Percy and Beverley Louch of Farwell, his children, Patti (Phil) Ruckle of Lake, Scott Louch of Farwell, Andrea (Brad) Armstrong of Mt. Pleasant, Kevin (Renae) Louch of Farwell, Aaron Louch also of Farwell, and Nathan Joseph of Arizona, his grandchildren, Melissa, Matthew, Lane, Trenten, Jourdyn, Hadyn, Mallorie, and Lauren, and his sister Kaye (Butch) Adams of Farwell, nieces and nephews, Alan and Karen Esterline, and Dawn and Doug Haggart.

A memorial service will be held on Friday, Oct. 3, 2014 at the Clare Church of the Nazarene with Pastor Tim Fall officiating. Friends may meet with his family on Friday from 5 to 7 PM at the Church. Memorials may be directed to his wife Suemya to assist with his medical expenses. Arrangements are by the Clare Chapel of Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Home. Online condolence register is available at www.stephenson-wyman.com
