

Rebecca L. Jennings

July 31, 1953 - March 11, 2021

Rebecca Lynn Jennings, age 67, passed away peacefully at home with her family at her bedside. Born July 31, 1953, daughter of Frieda and Malon Jennings, she grew up in Ft Worth, Texas until she and her mother moved to Clare in 2016 to live with Martin and Diane. Although she had developmental disabilities from birth she never complained and was sweet, cheerful, and loved being with her family and friends. She was active in various community activities, especially the ARC in Ft Worth. Homeschooled by her mother and grandmother, she was able to enjoy social activities, dancing, bowling, eating out, and travel. She especially enjoyed vacationing in Arkansas, Tennessee, and her trip to Europe visiting Germany, Switzerland, and England. She was a steadfast believer in Santa Clause and the Easter Bunny, which had absolutely nothing to do with the gifts and candy that were left behind in the morning.

She was predeceased by her parents Frieda and Malon Jennings. She is survived by her brother Martin (Diane) Jennings of Clare, MI, niece Jaime (Jason) Hatmaker of Davisburg, MI, nephews Adam (Jessie) Jennings of Hudsonville, MI and Bryan Jennings of Ft Worth, TX, and great aunt Lou Fithian of Ft Worth, TX. She looked forward to visits by her great-nieces and nephews Nicholas, Cheyenne, Maxon, Mylan, Elle, and Nash.

Arrangements are being provided by Clare Chapel of Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Home. Cremation followed by a private graveside service will take place in West Virginia. On-line guestbook at www.stephenson-wyman.com

Tribute Wall

ML

“ Dr Jennings and family, so sorry for your loss. You are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. ”

Maxine Lago - March 20, 2021 at 09:47 AM