“ Joy and June, Please hug your Mom for me. Tell her that even thou losing the one we love is very hard, he is now in heaven with his family and friends waiting for the rest of us to join him someday. He is smiling. No more pain, no more worries. Like the song says-- When we all get to heaven, what a day of rejoicing that will be!
You are all in my thoughts, and prayers.##imported-begin##Merlene Crawford##imported-end##

“ Pastor Hampton was truly a gracious and kind man, and pastor. He spent many hours at the U of M hospital to visit myself and my sister Mary. He always had a welcoming smile, an open home, and a corny joke, for all. He performed the wedding ceremony for myself and Robin. A good and faithful servant has gone home.###imported-begin###Phillip Grimmette Jr.###imported-end##

“ Back in the late 70's Forrest was the man I looked to and lived with as a troubled teen. He was my first pastor and true spiritual father. I am so sad I had not spoke with him in years, but soon we will have all eternity to catch up. See you soon my friend!##imported-begin##Dennis Baker##imported-end##

“ Heaven is rejoicing big time with such a reunion of Forrest's friends, Mr. Haff right there in front. He is right in there playing the organ or piano. And telling his jokes. Such a happy time for Forrest and a sad time for us. We loved you so and will miss you.##imported-begin##Phillip & Carol Grimmette##imported-end##
