My last memory of Riley was just a few months ago . I was driving and a box fell out of my truck before I could pull over I could see someone get out of there car and pick up that box and started running to me when we looked at each other I was looking at him I was saying thank you that is when he said to me I am Riley, John White's grandson . I knew who he was and I thought how thoughtful of him. Just wanted to share that memory with everyone
