“ Bob was the best kind of person-- he listened to people and cared about them. He was so generous with help and when i was struggling, he always was so quick with a kind thought and he had great stories to tell. He said some of the funniest things out of the blue. What a loss. I will miss him so much.

“ Bob was the greatest co-worker and friend that anyone could have. I learned so much from him about life and work. He was such an amazing person who cared alot for his family I always hear about him talking about them with a smile. He was a funny guy too,we always made jokes and had funny nicknames for people. He taught me so much and I will always treasure those moments. The only thing I wished he could have met is my soon to be born. Rest in peace, my friend...

“ I first met Bob when I worked under him at Lowes. He was a great manager and became a great friend to me. We shared many laughs, complained to each other about work and just enjoyed each others company. When I was having a rough patch in my life it was Bob who came to my rescue and help me through it. He never let me repay him for this, he was just to kind and generous to ever want anything in return even though I tried several times. I will always remember him and cherish the time I was able to have spent with him. He will be missed by us all.

I have never met a man so kind to others. So gentle. He was just plain amazing and we enjoyed our visits so much. I am just so sorry I could not say goodbye to this special man.
