“ To Pam, Jim and Cindy,

We the Hasse family are sorry to hear about the passing of your beautiful mother Sally. She was such a soft, loving women. We all have great memories of her and your family during our Boyne Mountain ski trips. From wearing wallpaper bibs on St, Patrick's Day to drinking Boonesfarm Strawberry wine at the halfway house. Those were some wonderful times.

Then there were the trips out west. Skiing Aspen, Snowmass and Steamboat all after the long drive in the motor homes, or converted Greyhound bus in your families case. Great memories of your mom, your dad and all of you kids.

Sally is now in heaven with Bob, Earleen and Pat: skiing the best hills ever and having God as the ultimate ski instructor. May Sally rest in peace.

Your mom was loved and she will be missed! Take care.

Pat, Sue, Chuck, Jeff, Cathy, Joanne and Lisa!!!!
