“ Very sorry to hear of Sharon’s passing. For years we were colleagues at Mid Michigan College and many of these years were financially challenging for the college necessitating employees to take on expanded roles. Sharon willingly and enthusiastically assumed a host of additional duties which required additional work hours with no added compensation. Her professionalism and commitment to the college and it’s students was evident throughout her 30 years of service. It was indeed my good fortune to have been her colleague for those many years.
