“ Dear Mike and family: We will really miss Sheila, and Chris and I want to send our deepest sympathies to Mike & family. Chris and I wanted to be there but we didn't find out date and time of service until it was too late. Chris really made a point of wanting to be there for you, Mike, as well as for Sheila. He has remembered all your love and help during a really hard time for both he and I. But thanks in a great part to you and Sheila; Chris is a hard working, responsible dad and husband with a good steady job that he works hard at (and not to mention I have 2 wonderful grandchildren which I just love to death!!!!). Chris's family is everything to him and he and Stephanie do a great job with raising them; a lot of patience and always consequences!!! We love you Mike and Sheila and all that you have done to help Chris (and I) enjoy each other and our family to the fullest. ##imported-begin## Debi & Chris Barnard ##imported-end##

“ There are no words to articulate what you meant to me Sheila (My mom when no one else wanted to be). I hope you can hear my words where you are, and know that you have always been with me. You were the only person in my life that treated me like I was a "real" daughter in a real family. I can't tell you how many times over the years I have cringed inside thinking of how I took life in your family for granted. You were a mother to me.. Again, when no one else in the world wanted me, you did. I hope you can hear me.. I hope I will be able to meet you again when it is my time. Sheila, you and Michael gave me love, and stability and most of all a sense of self... Multiply what I was given by 300 and it can't eve begin to define the good you have done by taking care of us throw-aways. I am only me becaue of you and Mike. I am so sorry I never had the opportunity to tell you this. I have no doubt you meant the same to the other children you took in as you did to me. I have always loved you, and I pray I can live well enough to meet you again.-
