“ Sherry was always a good sport. I loved her. Sherry was faithful in whatever she was involved in, be it AWANA at the First Baptist Church in Mt. Pleasant Michigan growing up, Playing Flute in the band, and supporting those new players working their way into the band, Marching Band, or studying.

One time...during a First Baptist church Youth group event, we were having a caramel apple eating contest. We made a "fake" apple with an onion, which was caramel covered. Sherry ended up with that one, and she was so gracious and kind and thought it was so funny, it made me feel bad for trying the practical joke.

I introduced Sherry to my childhood friend Steve Landon....and the rest is history.

I'm in Cleveland for work so cannot make it to Sherry's funeral. She asked me to specifically sing at her funeral the song... "MY GOD IS SO BIG, SO STRONG AND SO MIGHTY THERE'S NOTHING MY GOD CANNOT DO!"

I was able to talk to Sherry the week before her Pnumonia. Her love toward me was felt, and I knew I was losing a kind, loving friend.
