

Shirley Ann Colvin

September 24, 1944 - January 28, 2020

Shirley Ann (Katterman) Colvin, age 75 of Lake, passed away at her home on Tuesday, January 28, 2020. On September 24, 1944, Shirley was born to Lloyd and Eva (Birkenbach) Katterman in Tawas, MI. She was united in marriage to John A. Colvin, Jr. on May 14, 1966 in Tawas and the pair enjoyed just over 52 years of marriage together until John's passing in June of 2018. During her working years, Shirley enjoyed her time as a home maker and occasionally worked as a seasonal employee of Vandenberg Bulb Co. at her previous residence of Howell. Shirley has been a resident of Lake for the last twenty-plus years, having moved to the area with her husband John after his retirement. Shirley absolutely loved to crochet, and when she wasn't crocheting, she was usually working on puzzles, or playing any number of board games with her family and friends. She was also a lover of all animals and nature.

Shirley is survived by her daughters Debra (Dave) Knieper of Brighton and Ann (Mark) Baylis of Howell, and her grandchildren Danielle Knieper and Sarah and Joshua Baylis. Other survivors include her siblings Dorothy Allen and James (Annette) Katterman, both of Tawas, and a large group of loving extended family and friends. Shirley was preceded in death by her husband John A. Colvin, Jr., her parents Lloyd and Eva Katterman, and her siblings Herb Katterman, Arlene Bronson, and Betty Katterman.

A memorial service in honor of Shirley will take place at the Farwell Chapel of the Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Home on Friday, February 7, 2020 at 12:30

P.M.with Pastor Jeremiah Ketchum officiating. Friends may visit with the family on Friday from 11:00 A.M.to the time of service at 12:30 P.M. Luncheon provided directly after the service at Clare Moose Lodge. Memorial contributions in honor of Shirley may be directed towards her headstone. “ *Very sad to hear that Shirley has passed and my sympathies are extended to the entire family. As confirmands in the 50's and neighbors across the street where husband John lived are easy events in our life to recall. Shirley was a dedicated individual as expressed within her final words. I know the loss to the family will leave a huge void that cannot be filled. With fond memories I send my very best to the family of Shirley Katterman-Colvin....
