“ Dear Ken,I know that you have lost the love of your life and your best friend and I don't know how to say anything to make that better or fix it, but I do want to say that your love for Annie shined though every time her name passed though your lips. You are a shining example of what a good husband and father should be and I hope some of that brings you some comfort on this occasion when God decided he needed Annie up there to brighten heaven with the light of her smile. “ Annie lived to do things for others. She lived vibrantly. She was dynamite in a small package and the world will be a less vibrant place without her. Ken, Shannon, Shelley, Makynzie, Kaden, Neriah, BeeGee, Cassidy, & Scooter - you are always in my heart. I miss and love you all.##imported-begin##Vicki Hibl##imported-end##

“ I owe Annie a debt of gratitude for always giving me a kick in the pants when necessary or a shoulder to lean on when I needed it. I am devastated that we can't be in Clare to wrap our arms around you Ken, Shelley and Shannon, but please know that our whole family is thinking about you and sending energy your way. Much love and prayers.##imported-begin##Chris, Bill, Brad & Bre##imported-end##
