

Shirley Pawlus

July 30, 1923 - March 26, 2020

Shirley V. Pawlus, age 96, of Clare, passed away on Thursday, March 26, at MidMichigan Health in Midland. She was born the daughter of Oneal and Louise (Roberts) Shinevar on July 30, 1923, in Erie, Michigan. Shirley was predeceased by her loving husband of 34 years, Chester Pawlus. She was also predeceased by her two brothers, James Shinevar (Jean) and Robert Shinevar.

In her early years Shirley worked as a switchboard operator before marrying Chester in 1948 and settling in Detroit where they raised their three sons. In her later years she relocated to Clare, MI, where she enjoyed spending time with her family and the many new friends she made living here. Shirley was loved by all who knew her and will be dearly missed.

Shirley is survived by her three sons, Larry (Rose Ann) Pawlus of Oscoda, Michael (Cathy) Pawlus of Lake, and Chuck Pawlus of Mt. Pleasant. Also surviving are five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

In light of the current Corona Virus Crisis, there will be no service at this time. The family plans a memorial gathering to celebrate her life at a later time. Arrangements were by the Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Homes of Clare and Farwell. An online condolence register is available at www.stephenson-wyman.com

“ Every night I would work I would make sure to tell my Shirley bug good night. Loved to hear that laugh and see that smile that would light up an arena. Shirley brought such joy to all of us here at Pioneer Golden Estates and she will be truly truly missed.
