

Stanley R. Bishop Jr.

January 18, 1925 - June 30, 2015

Stanley R. Bishop, Jr., age 90 of Farwell formerly of Detroit, passed away Tuesday, June 30, 2015 at the Tendercare Nursing Home in Clare. Stanley was born the son of the late Stanley R. and Veronica (Rzepecki) Bishop on January 18, 1925 in Richmond. He was united in marriage to Mildred Petrulis on September 22, 1945. Stanley began working at a young age on his family's farm in Richmond; he had worked at several Tool and Die shops, retiring from Triple Tool in Troy in 1994. Following his retirement he had moved to the White Birch Estate's in Clare County where he enjoyed playing Euchre and meeting with other members over their weekly breakfast get-togethers. He enjoyed deer hunting, fishing and bowling and had attended Our Lady of Hope Parish - St. Cecilia Site.

Stanley is survived by his wife Mildred; children Richard (Lesley) of Spring Lake and Donna Krajewski of Farwell; a grandson David Krajewski; his brother Robert of Richmond; many nieces and nephews including great and great great and his dog, Elvis and cat, Scooby Doo. Stanley was predeceased by his son Dale R. Bishop; grandson Michael R. Bishop, six brothers John, Gene, Frank, Henry, Edward and Arthur and one sister Clara.

Visitation and services will be held at the Clare Chapel of Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Home on Friday, July 3, 2015. Visitation will be from 2 to 5 and 7 until the time of services at 8 P.M.; services will be led by Pastor Douglas Blackwell. Memorial contributions may be made to the family.
