“ Got to know Suzie as a caregiver to her at Country Care. What a hoot. She shared many fond memories of her life and all the people she knew and loved growing up. My heart goes out to Cindy, Butch, and Becky. The people I became acquaintances with in Sue's care. She was a devout Catholic, enjoying Mother Angelica and her daily masses on EWTN. There are many people we meet in our lives that we wish we could have spent more time with. Suzie was one of them. God Bless Suzie, finally at home with the Lord. I'll be seeing you again. Save some ice cream for me, I'm sure it's Heavenly 🍦

“ God surely blessed our lives to cross paths. It was an honor of my lifetime to have been known and loved as her daughter, and to have known and loved her as my Mama. We went to many events together, but her 50th class reunion was the best. You are in perfect peace now, Mama... I'll be seeing you again real soon!! ❤️❤️

“ Sue was a good friend in grade school at St Cecilia’s and in high school too. I will never forget when I came to stay at your house and you taught me how to milk a cow. May you rest in peace my friend.
