“ Tom was a close friend of mine from 5th grade through high school. He was always a much better student than I was, but for some reason we got along well and enjoyed spending time at each other's houses, playing sports and de-coding the lyrics of Beatle songs. I think I last saw him around 1975 and we lost track after that, but I still missed him. I do remember his brothers (Dave, Bill and Steve). You all have my sympathy and can get in touch with me at rvbkeggers@aol.com if you want to touch base.

“ Aleta, we are so sorry for your loss. Tom was love by everyone. After the second generation of nieces and nephew arrived, he always like being thought of as, and always will be, "A Great Uncle". Brother Tom will be missed. Much love, Bill, Sally and family
