“ Vic and I made many memories we traveled across the USA many times. He was absolutely my best friend. He had a rough exterior but a heart of gold. He loved all animals dogs being his favorite. He was absolutely nuts about Wesson a Belgian Malinois that normally got the best of Vic. His love of the outdoors was his sanctuary hunting fish and growing things. He sure liked his pickles, pickled green tomatoes and tomato juice. Vic always had my back and I had his we called each other brother. I think we wore out a few motorcycles over the years. I miss him already as we would talk a bit everyday. He will never be forgotten and the pictures I have of the his life I'll cherish for the rest of my days. God speed my friend.
